

Back row, from left, Randy Black, CEO of Black Gaming; Lex Hall, Virgin River general manager; Leslee Montgomery, Virgin Valley Community Food Bank and Thrift Shop; Marty Rapson, CasaBlanca general manager; John David Belcher, Moapa Valley Performing Arts Council; Darlene Montague, MRA advisory board member; Sue McMahon, MRA advisory board member; Marco Ruelas, MRA advisory board member. Front: Julie Moore, Mesquite United Methodist Church; Gladys Smith, Virgin Valley Community Food Bank and Thrift Shop; Shawn Hotch, Virgin Valley Family Services Boxing Club; Megan Potter, Moapa Valley Performing Arts Council; Jeri Smith, Virgin Valley Communities Sub for Santa; and Jim Wilson, Greater Mesquite Arts Foundation.

IS IT A FACT?

Myths & Facts

Hearing loss and hearing instruments today is information. Before you make any big decisions behind these common myths:

1. (1 in 10 people), odds are good that you or someone you only know about it. subtle at first and difficult to self-diagnose. A simple Q & A

Charities benefit from MRA

Local charitable organizations were the beneficiaries of the Mesquite Resort Association's quarterly donation last week.

The MRA — comprising the CasaBlanca, Virgin River and Eureka casino complexes — are members, annually donates $25,000 to local non-profit groups and schools.

Donation recipients were the Greater Mesquite Arts Foundation, $3,000; Mesquite United Methodist Church, $500; Moapa Valley Performing Arts Council, $1,000; Virgin River Communities Sub for Santa, $1,000; Virgin Valley Family Services Boxing Club, $500; Virgin Valley Community Food Bank and Thrift Shop, $2,000.

Lilienthal outlines