Ludvigson family wins Junior Golf tournament

Kennedi and Stetson Ludvigson combined for a five-under score Saturday to highlight a Virgin Valley Junior Golf Association night tournament at the Palms Golf Club.

The winners in the four-person scramble played with parents Justin and Jody Ludvigson.

Played over eight holes, golfers participated in the unique event utilizing glow balls for the tournament, which began at 7:45 p.m. and concluded in the dark at about 10:30 p.m.

A three-way tie for second place included

Mitch and Cody Jones accompanied by parents, Don and Mary Jones; Christian Begin and Easton Jensen, who played with parents, Jeff and Michelle Jensen; and juniors Autumn Schlemmer and Taryn Mayer with Taryn's parents, Don and Sharon Mayer.

The annual event is the most popular VJGA tournament of the year drawing about 50 participants.

Sponsors of the tournament included Mesquite Tile and Floor; and the Palms Golf Course, which hosted the tournament. Others who donated their time to make the tourney possible were Joe Sherwood, Mark Bevan, Amber Hughes and Jeff Martin.

The VJGA will host junior/adult tournaments every Saturday beginning at 11 a.m. at various golf courses in Mesquite.
